Obituary

Lois L. Wormely was born to the proud parents of John and Sabie Johnson in Dothan, Alabama on January 20, 1916. She received her education in the local schools of the community. She came to the state of California in the mid 40's where she joined the Little Chapel C.O.G.I.C. under the pastorship of the late Bishop L.E Cleaver. She also served under Eld. Robert Collier, Eld. Joe King Sr. and present Pastor Joe King Jr.

She met and then married Mr. Andrew Lee Wormely Sr. on April 18, 1953. To this union was born one daughter Andrea Etta and one son Andrew Jr.

Mother Wormely was a very faithful worker in the church. She worked in the local, district, and state. She loved to usher and cook. Mother Wormely loved to work and stay busy (it was a job in itself to get her to sit down and relax). She ushered faithfully at her local church and made it a point to make sure that her Pastors were well taken care of. In the District she coordinated and prepare dinners. She will be remembered for her delicious homemade rolls (not to be mistaken for biscuits). People traveled near and far on holidays to make it to the Wormely's house just to get some rolls. She will be remembered as the candy lady by many children and adults as well for always having a bag full of candy.

Mother Wormely labored in the church for many, many, years and on February 13, 2002 the lord saw fit to bring her home. She will be greatly missed.

Husband and son preceded her in death. She leaved to mourn her loving family, daughter Andrea E. Jackson (Precious), son-in-law Richard K. Jackson, daughter-in-law Rachelle Wormely, Four brothers and five sister-in-law, Isaac and Mae Emma Johnson of Dothan Alabama, Porter and Rose Johnson of San Antonio, Texas, Tip and Betty Johnson of Atlanta Georgia, Rachel and Margo Johnson of Newark, Ca., Ora Bell Johnson of Dothan Alabama, cousin Gladys Garrett of Vallejo, Ca., Grandchildren Roshelle, Katanya, LaNeisha, Jacquetta, Andrew III, James, Great grand Mauriana, Nieces, Nephews, a host of other relatives, friends, and church family.
